

Emily Ford
Student Representative

My name is Emily, I'm currently a Master of Science in Physical Therapy student at the University of Toronto. Previously, I've attended Wilfrid Laurier University, earning my Bachelor of Kinesiology in 2020 and Master of Kinesiology in 2022. My research experience, broadly within motor control and development, has inspired my journey to becoming a physiotherapist, specifically working in paediatrics. I am grateful for this experience within the Paediatric division of the CPA and am eager to learn more
