

Michelle Wong
Student
Representative

Michelle is currently a MScPT student at the University of Toronto and completed her BHSc at Western University. She has a longstanding passion for working with kiddos and is excited to help other students broaden their knowledge about paediatric physiotherapy. In her free time, you can find her exploring new cafes, baking, and spending time outdoors!