

Leadership

The place to be in 2015

Building core competencies in professional self awareness, modeling leadership behaviours and acknowledging qualities in others within the profession and the healthcare system through networking, communication, education and research

Operational Sustainability that ensures our ability to foster the development of leadership within our profession	Connecting and Communicating with our members to exchange and share our insights	Building leadership competencies that engages members in the evolution of our collective professional identity	Supporting Research that links to building the leadership competencies
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Attract committed executive and working group members. Presentations to intro the Division at each University with a PT School Membership benefits based on feedback from 2014 membership survey to ensure long term viability. Support the evolution of the British Columbia Section. Letter of inquiry received and response is being written. Discussions between Leadership and Private Practice re: merging the divisions Meeting of both executives at Congress 2014 Edmonton Outline of proposed merger Survey of membership 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Utilize our website as the platform for informing and engaging with members. Gamechanger videos Engaging Members with a weekly focused email blast to inform, inspire and motivate. Twitter and Facebook feeds and updates Publishing Newsletters 4 in 2014; 6 in 2015. Recognition of members through annual awards program. Leadership Award of Excellence Student PT Leadership Award 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Deliver 3 CPA Practice Management Workshops based on Education Curriculum series; Emotional Intelligence, Appreciative Inquiry & Transformational Leadership 3-90 minute workshop Feb, Mar, Apr 2014 Partner with one Branch to deliver a one day workshop Discussions with New Brunswick, Saskatchewan and Alberta now underway. Become the CPA in-house leadership content provider/educators. Develop outline of proposed Governance education curriculum for all Divisions. To be presented to Division Chairs meeting November 2014 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provide financial support to a research project that aligns with our vision. Develop a rubric for evaluating funding requests
PTA Initiative - TBD	Student Initiative – Student section to be added to newsletter PTA Initiative - TBD	New Initiative – Proposed half day course for PT's. Topic Narrative Medicine PTA Initiative - TBD	