REFERENCES

An Aging Health Care System

By Linda Woodhouse, CPA President

Remember the Role of the Brain in Mobility when Prescribing Exercises to Prevent Falls

By Teresa Liu-Ambrose, PhD, PT

Planning For a Good Retirement

By Margaret Martin, BScPT

The 3 D's: Understanding Dementia, Depression, and Delirium: Implications for Physiotherapists Working with Older Adults

By Maureen O’Connell, PT, BHSc(PT)

   a. SIGECAPS - page 75
   b. Confusion Assessment Method – page 72
   c. Cornell – page 76
   d. Geriatric Depression Scale – page 77

Individualized Progressive Walking Program Reduces Falls in Nursing Home

By Simon Oakey BScPT

1. Accreditation Canada “Preventing Falls: From Evidence to Improvement in Canadian Health Care”

Taking Care of our Elderly: Challenges for Physiotherapy in Long-term Care

By Caitlin McArthur, MScPT, PhD Student

1. Accreditation Canada “Preventing Falls: From Evidence to Improvement in Canadian Health Care”. 2014.

Finding Passion and Great Rewards Working in Seniors Health

By Helen Johnson, BSc PT, MSc,